This book explores the origins of Zionism within Jewish tradition, the variety of Zionist ideologies, and the political circumstances that fostered this movement. Jewish immigration to Palestine, shifting British policies, Arab reactions to Jewish settlements, and the impact of the Holocaust are among the book’s central topics. A final chapter summarizes the major problems and achievements of the Jewish state, and examines possible directions for its post-Zionist future.

“Brenner is a gifted storyteller who gleans the best stories from a rich and dynamic century. Those stories just happen to be true.”—Jewish Book Council

“Prof. Michael Brenner’s brilliant short survey of one of the most interesting and embattled movements of the contemporary world is the most reliable introduction available in English into a subject that has become in recent years a matter of much controversy, very often on the basis of ideological prejudice or simply ignorance. This admirably objective review of a multi-faceted movement deals both with its cultural and political origins and manifestations.”—Walter Laqueur, author of The History of Zionism (1972)

HC: 978-155-876-535-1 $68.95
PB: 978-155-876-536-8 $26.95

The book includes two stories by Heinrich Heine, “The Rabbi of Bacherach” and “Shylock,” as well as the poem “Hebrew Melodies.” This beautiful edition is illustrated with the lithographs of Max Liebermann, one of of the most prominent turn-of-the-century European painters.

“The stories illustrate Heine’s fascination with Jewish medieval traditions and condemn anti-Semitism. The most haunting tale, ‘The Rabbi of Bacherach,’ vividly describes a Passover feast at the home of a rabbi who lives in the Jewish ghetto of a medieval German town...An interesting prose piece, ‘Shylock,’ skillfully defends the Jewish merchant whose tragic fate in Shakespeare’s Merchant of Venice has come to represent prejudice against Jews.”—Publishers Weekly

PB: 978-091-012-962-6 $18.95
Old New Land

Theodor Herzl

Introduction by Jacques Kornberg

“Old New Land is one of the most remarkable books of the twentieth century... a blueprint of the perfect Jewish state, a technocratic utopia, a socialist dream with all the advantages of capitalism, an idealistic colonial enterprise, a model of pure reason, a ‘light unto the nations.’ It also helps to explain the extremism of some of those who rebel against the dominance of what is widely regarded as the arrogant West. Herzl could not possibly have foreseen the tensions to come, and yet the seeds of tragedy are already buried in this text.”

—The New York Review of Books

PB: 978-1-55876-160-5
$26.95

Israel and Palestine: Peace Plans and Proposals from Oslo to Disengagement

Galina Golan

“Delivering a readable and remarkably evenhanded account, Golan dissects each of the major Israeli and Palestinian peace attempts, from Oslo in 1993 to the 2005 Israeli disengagement from Gaza. Her conclusion is refreshingly, if ambitiously, optimistic: despite the violence and intransigence of both sides, Israelis and Palestinians are substantially closer to peace now than when the talks began.”

—Publishers Weekly

PB: 978-1-55876-503-0
$24.95

The Levant: A Fractured Mosaic

William Harris

Updated and Expanded 2014 Edition

This updated edition includes a new chapter on the Levant from the Arab Spring until today.

“A well-researched and engaging book.”

—Library Journal

“A frightening summary of the region’s future (and perhaps unsolvable) prospects, which are compounded by rivalries among the mosaic of peoples and ubiquitous sects that permeate the area and maintain the divisiveness. The book summarizes libraries of research to provide an up-to-date guide to present and future problems.... Highly recommended.”

—Choice

HC: 978-1-55876-602-0
$68.95

PB: 978-1-55876-603-7
$26.95
Islamophobes use anti-Semitic stereotypes for hate messages. Anti-Semitic ideas are often repeated in anti-Israeli Arab propaganda, and Israelis have used Islamophobic images in their media. The use of these texts and images on both sides threatens to transform the Israeli-Palestinian conflict from a political into a religious one, and thereby clouds the judgment of anyone attempting to resolve it.

“All of the articles are accessible to a general educated audience, with points of special interest for everyone.”
—Journal of Palestine Studies

HC: 978-1-55876-402-6 $68.95
PB: 978-1-55876-403-3 $24.95

As in WWI, the Germans tried during WWII to incite Arab populations to jihad against the allied nations. Adolf Hitler revealed to the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem in late 1941 that after his victory against the Russians, he would pursue the Jews in the Middle East as he was doing already in occupied Europe.

“A success.”
—Journal of Palestine Studies

HC: 978-1-55876-125-4 $48.95
PB: 978-1-55876-126-1 $22.95

Combining the rigors of academic research with a “you are there” delivery, this book is suitable for introductory courses on Africa, ethnography, Jewish studies, and religious studies, as well as for the reading pleasure of the ecumenical-minded traveler.

“Miles’ book...is compelling. It examines the Jewish presence in Africa and the history of interaction between Jews and Africans. ... It is also a wise rumination on the nature of cultural exchange and religious toleration.” —Foreign Affairs Journal

HC: 978-1-55876-581-8 $88.95
PB: 978-1-55876-582-5 $24.95
Jews and Judaism in African History
Richard Hull

“This book fills a gap in the broad history of Jews in Africa. Hull teaches courses on the topic, about which he marshals an impressive body of literature in succinct prose with balanced judgements. This will be useful for students of all levels and as a text for teaching.” —Choice

“Hull provides the foundation for appreciating the longstanding presence and contradictory roles of Jews in African society.” —African Studies Quarterly

“[This] is a helpful complement to other historical texts on Africa, and any student of African history will be able to use Hull’s book as a source of information demanding future study...this is a valuable source for all students of Jewish and African History.” —African Studies Review

HC: 978-1-55876-495-8 $86.95
PB: 978-1-55876-496-5 $26.95

Jews of a Saharan Oasis
John Hunwick

“Thoroughly exploiting the extant Arabic writings on the subject, Hunwick examines the rise and purge of a Jewish communal outpost of Tlemcen, which lay in the Touat oasis more than a third of the way to Timbuktu... That he has at last turned a decades-long interest in this event in Jewish and African history into a book should be of satisfaction to [other] academic constituencies.”

—International Journal of African Historical Studies

“John Hunwick pioneered the use of Arabic sources for writing African history. He has devoted his lifelong work to the study of Islamic Africa and to illuminating the importance of... Muslim African heritage... Hunwick is resurrecting Jewish voices silenced by al-Maghili’s vitriolic agenda.”

—African Studies Review

HC: 978-1-55876-345-6 $98.95
PB: 978-1-55876-346-3 $24.95

Jews of Nigeria: An Afro-Jewish Odyssey
William F.S. Miles

“In Jews of Nigeria, Miles shares life stories from this spiritually passionate community, as well as his own Judaic reflections, as he celebrates Hanukka and a bar mitzvah with ‘Jubos’ in Abuja, the capital of Nigeria.” —Publisher’s Weekly

“A fascinating, sensitive, and insightful addition to the rapidly developing field of studies of Jews and Judaism in Africa. A must-read...”

—Richard Hull, New York University

“A thought-provoking story of religious discovery... Miles challenges the reader to think about the issues surrounding the intersection of ethnicity, religion, spirituality, sense of belonging, and acceptance by others...”

—Jewish Books Review

HC: 978-1-55876-565-8 $69.95
PB: 978-1-55876-566-5 $24.95
For a full listing, including tables of contents and

Once Jews: Stories of Caribbean Sephardim

Josette Capriles Goldish

In the nineteenth century, Jews of Curaçao left the Dutch island for other Caribbean ports. This is their story.

“A goldmine of historical documents unknown and perhaps largely inaccessible to most researchers. These include unpublished genealogies, family histories, and scrapbooks she seems to have obtained from living descendants... Once Jews is evidence that some of the richest historical and sociological sources for the Jewish Caribbean are in the hands and mouths of its Sephardic descendants.”—New West Indian Guide

HC: 978-1-55876-493-4 $68.95
PB: 978-1-55876-494-1 $28.95

Dr. Moritz (Don Mauricio) Hochschild, 1881-1965: A German Jewish Mining Entrepreneur in South America

Helmut Waszakis

The colorful life and activities of Dr. Moritz Hochschild in Latin America are the center of the first biography of the man, an important mining entrepreneur and ore buyer, and his companies. Moritz Hochschild became one of the infamous “tin barons” of Bolivia. Some people called him the “genius of evil”; others recognized his significant contributions to the industrial development of South America as an innovator of the mining industries.

PB: 978-0-945179-04-7 $26.95

Tropical Diaspora: The Jewish Experience in Cuba

Robert S. Levine

“This well-documented social history... contributes to an understanding of Cuban Jewry’s unique setting—starting from colonial times, through its second American diaspora following the 1959 communist revolution.”—Florida Historical Quarterly

“...Levine’s account of the Jews under Fidel Castro is one of the most rewarding aspects of this book.”—Journal of Latin American Studies

“This book provides a powerful sense of hemispheric history repeating itself... It is about the many diasporas which have made the Caribbean Basin what it is.”—Journal of American Ethnic History

PB: 978-1-55876-521-4 $28.95
RAVENSBbrück: Everyday Life in a Women’s Concentration Camp, 1939-45

Jack G. Morrison

Attempting to reconstruct the workings of everyday life in the concentration camp at Ravensbrück, the only camp in the Nazi system designed for women, Morrison examines the prisoners’ social relationships with each other and their overlords; prisoner activities; and the occurrences of sickness, death, and killing at the camp. The volume is illustrated with drawings by inmates, and photos by the SS.

“A comprehensive picture of the prisoners’ daily lives.”
—Publishers Weekly

“This book successfully blends the larger history of Nazi Germany — absolutely essential in order to understand how most of the inmates ended up in the camp — with the women’s experiences.”
—Library Journal

HC: 978-155-876-219-0
$49.95

PB: 978-155-876-218-3
$28.95

America in the Eyes of the Germans: An Essay on Anti-Americanism

Dan Diner

forward by Sander Gilman, translated by Allison Brown

Though the United States was often viewed by the people of Germany as a land of opportunity, a portion of the intelligentsia tended to see the U.S. as the home of greedy mostly Jewish hypocrites, undermining all higher culture. From the beginning of the Romantic period and throughout all the turnings of German history to the end of the Cold War, this theme was embellished differently in each era, but its essence remained unchanged.

PB: 978-155-876-105-6
$18.95

HC: 978-155-876-104-9
$44.95

The Turning Point: The Autobiography of Klaus Mann

Klaus Mann

introduction by Shelley Frisch

Klaus Mann, writer of Mephisto and the oldest son of Nobel Prize winner Thomas Mann, describes the life of intellectuals in Europe before the Nazi seizure of power, then moves on to depict the restless existence of the often bohemian literary circles of writers in Paris, Zurich, Amsterdam, New York, and Hollywood in the 30s and 40s.

“A sensitive, cultivated European looks at his world, his life and describes them in an apt and telling phrase.”
—The New York Times Book Review

PB: 978-091-012-914-5
$18.95
For a full listing, including tables of contents and

Allrightniks Row: “Haunch Paunch and Jowl”
Samuel Ornitz

This turn-of-the-century novel portrays people born in the tenements who fight their way out of the slums to make it to the fashionable Allrightniks Row. Based on historical events, the book is a story about ambition, politics, and opportunistic affairs, as well as friendship and family traditions.

“Comparisons with Defoe and Swift are ringing in my ears. There is genius in Haunch Paunch and Jowl.” — The New York Tribune

“It is a marvelously wrought book with deep, stirring moments.” — The Nation

PB: 978-0-91012-974-9
$18.95

Family Chronicle: An Odyssey from Russia to America
Charles Reznikoff

This remarkably moving and often funny saga becomes the collective memoir of the celebrated American poet and his family. Drawing upon the childhood stories of his parents, the author weaves together narratives that portray life in 19th-century provincial Russia, capture the tumult of emigration across the Atlantic, and culminate in the beginning of a new life in New York in the 1920s.

“Family Chronicle silently imbues its material with a humanity, the forces of which it derives from its tender and eloquent compactness…Tender and eloquent.” — The Times Literary Supplement

PB: 978-0-91012-974-9
$18.95

From Plotzk to Boston: A Young Girl’s Journey from Russia to the Promised Land
Mary Antin

From Plotzk to Boston was written while the memory of the journey was still fresh, when Mary Antin was just thirteen years old. She describes her family’s frightening and exciting journey to America in the 1890s. Like thousands of other Russian-Jewish immigrants, she and her family had to secretly cross the Russian border and travel through Germany to the port of Hamburg before embarking for the New World. Written while the memory was still vivid in her mind, this straight-forward and ingenious narrative mirrors the experiences of many of our grandparents or great-grandparents.

PB: 978-1-55876-310-4
$18.95
This outstanding family novel, set in a Jewish neighborhood of Chicago, is “the fullest articulation of the generational conflict between Jewish fathers and son,” writes Alexander Bloom in his 1986 book Prodigal Sons. The central character, a fifteen-year-old boy in rebellion against the petit bourgeois values of his family, engineers an affair between his flamboyant aunt and his easy-going Gentile cousin by marriage. He then leaves his father and moves into the house of this new couple, where he experiences the excitement and problem of an open relationship.

PB: 978-091-012-975-6
$25.98

This curriculum source book teaches students to use original sources for developing historical theories. The editors provide a commentary to this valuable collection in order to find answers to the following questions and more: How was the American Jewish experience in the Revolution like and unlike that of Americans generally? How did the founding of the Republic affect the subsequent course of Jewish history in America? How did being Jewish affect one’s being an American in the early Republic? How did being an American affect one’s being Jewish?

PB: 978-091-012-975-6
$25.98

The History of American Jewry is reflected in the history of its synagogues and communities. Now for the first time this history can truly be written from the bottom up, beginning with local sources. This guide provides the means to embark on a search for communal, religious and family roots.

This is the first full-scale bibliography of American synagogue histories—more than 1100 of them—plus community histories, selected secondary sources, and an appendix dealing with synagogue architecture.

PB: 978-091-012-975-6
$25.95
Table of Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Pages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Israel, Zionism, and Palestine</td>
<td>0–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jews in Africa</td>
<td>2–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jews in Latin America</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>German–American Jewish History and Literature</td>
<td>5–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jewish–American Studies and Immigration</td>
<td>6–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Order Form</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Other catalogues from Markus Wiener Publishers:

Latin American & Caribbean Studies

Africa

Middle East
Place course adoption orders with your University Bookstore, or send to:

Markus Wiener Publishers, Order Dept.
231 Nassau St., Princeton, NJ 08542

Phone: 609-921-1141
Fax: 609-921-1140

Send books to:

Name____________________Email____________________
Institution________________________________Address__________________
City                             State          Zip                     Phone  (        )

Quantity       ISBN                 Title                               Price                Total

Subtotal

Tax [NJ residents only]

* Shipping
$5.50

Total

Shipping and handling: For U.S. orders, add $5.50 for first book and $1.00 for each add’l book ordered.

* For foreign orders, please send order via e-mail to info@markuswiener.com for shipping quote prior to submitting payment.
New Jersey residents please add appropriate sales tax.

Payment must accompany orders.

Payment must accompany orders.

Send books to:   Name____________________Email____________________
Institution________________________________Address__________________
City                             State          Zip                     Phone  (        )

EXAMINATION COPY POLICY

Examination copies are available to instructors at a 10% discount if ordered on department letterhead, indicating the course name, date and estimated size of the order. Orders for examination copies must be prepaid. Purchase price will be refunded if an order is placed through the college bookstore for 10 or more copies within 90 days.

One complimentary desk copy will be provided for each 10 copies ordered by your bookstore. Please include the bookstore’s purchase order number on all requests for desk copies.